

(FORMERLY NEHRU COLLEGE OF NURSING)

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

- Students admitted to P K DAS College of Nursing Vaniyamkulam, Ottappalam, Palakkad (District) shall undergo their prescribed course of study as per the stipulation of University (KUHS), Government of Kerala and Indian Nursing Council.
- The College working hours will be from 08.30AM to 4 .30PM in all days except Second Saturdays , Third Saturdays and Sundays.
- Students are expected to use the common room for lunch.
- Students are expected to maintain silence during the class hours.
- Prior permission has to be obtained to leave otherwise it will be considered as absent.
- Clinical duty for students starts at 08.30 am. Therefore students are expected to be inside the college bus at 08.15 am to enable the students to reach the duty on time.
- Proper dress code and professional attire should be adhered before entering to the class room and Clinical area on all working days.
- Mobile phones are not permitted inside the College.
- Day scholars are expected to surrender their phone in the office and get it back while leaving the college in the evening.
- Students are expected to have minimum 80% of attendance in theory and practical to appear for university exam.
- Library timing is between 09.00AM to 05.00 PM.
- Strict silence should be maintained inside the library.
- Students should write name in the entry register before entering the library. Students should return the books after three days.
- The Students should strictly wear college identity card during college and clinical hours.